PRESS RELEASE

Renee Flanders Named Assistant Vice President, Senior Treasury Management Officer at Ballston Spa National Bank

BALLSTON SPA, N.Y. – Renee Flanders has been appointed assistant vice president, senior treasury management officer at Ballston Spa National Bank \(BSNB\) according to Christopher R. Dowd, president and CEO. In this role, Flanders will lead BSNB’s treasury management function, consulting and advising clients on products and solutions to efficiently manage their cash, boost profits and reduce expenses. Flanders will work closely with BSNB’s commercial lending team, providing support in the areas of payments and receivables, digital banking transactions and mitigating fraud risk.

Flanders brings more than 15 years of banking experience to the role. She worked most recently with community development lending teams providing treasury management services to not-for-profits and affordable housing clients throughout the east coast. She earned an undergraduate degree from SUNY Oneonta.
